PROPOSED RALLY OF KLAN ORGANIZATIONS IN CHICAGO
ILLINOIS, OCTOBER 26, 1966.

On October 5, 1966, a confidential source advised that [redacted] the Maranatha Bible Seminary, Post Office Box 2984, Saint Petersburg, Florida, requested the backing of James R. b6
b7C

Characterization of National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., is attached hereto.

[redacted] told Venable that he was leaving on a trip to Jerusalem and upon his return wants to have a large event in Chicago with Venable as the main speaker. [redacted] indicated that they could have approximately one hundred thousand people there and if everyone received an application for Klan membership that they could get about ten thousand members out of that meeting. From that group various Klaverns could be set up in the Chicago area. He said he was going to ask for the help of [redacted] and [redacted] in Ohio for their backing.

b6

Synopsis: NKKKK has two Klaverns established in Northern, Ohio, Klavern No. 6 with 63 members centered at Cleveland, Ohio, and Klavern No. 7 with 30 members centered at Akron, Ohio. Klavern No. 6 meetings held irregularly and poorly attended. Klavern No. 7 has held no meetings since Summer of 1966 because of internal friction. Both Klaverns No. 6 and 7 have only two officers each [redacted] remains [redacted] for Ohio, although he recently announced that a re-organization of the NKKKK in Ohio is planned and JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, is dissatisfied with NKKKK in Ohio. NKKKK held rally 8/6 and 7/66 near Lodi, Medina County, Ohio. Klavern No. 6 on 9/23 and 24/66 carried through with plans to counter-surveil [redacted] which planned to surveil Cleveland PD, however, no activity on part of [redacted] observed. Klavern No. 6 also participated in picketing of The Book Mark, CP book store, on 8/13/66, and counter-picketed Cleveland Committee to End the War in Vietnam 9/18/66 during Vice-President HUMPHREY's visit to Cleveland. SUBJECT OF ORGANIZATION

- P -

DETAILS:

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) and United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA) is contained in the appendix of this report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters

[] on [] advised that the NKKKK has no headquarters within the confines of the Cleveland Division and to the best of his knowledge, the NKKKK has no headquarters within Ohio.

B. Charter Information

[] on [] advised that the NKKKK has no charter with the State of Ohio, although for a short period the NKKKK did have a charter which was granted by the State of Ohio and then revoked.

C. Objectives

[] advised on [] that through his association with the Klan movement, it is clear that the objectives of the NKKKK are to fight integration, bring about the repeal of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as well as to present the views of the white race in a favorable light by insuring that the various news media present not only Negroes' views but also that of the white race in any particular issue.

[] noted that these objectives in the Northern Ohio area are expected to be brought about by peaceful means by the vast majority of Klansmen, although a very small minority within the movement have eluded to or even suggested forms of violence and intimidation against the Negro race as a solution to the problem.

D. National and State Officers

[] on [] advised that there are no officers on the National level within the State of Ohio, although a number of Northern Ohio Klansmen are considered to be members of the Imperial Board. He identified these as [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted]

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted]
[redacted] and [redacted] are on the Imperial Board and that [redacted] claims to be a member of the Imperial Board although he has never shown any documentary proof and [redacted] is skeptical of [redacted] claim.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted]
during the past week advised that he felt that JAMES R.
VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, might kick him out of the NKKKK inasmuch as he recently learned that VENABLE had made [redacted] a King Kleagle and in view of his personal differences with [redacted] this was a good possibility that he may be dropped from the Klan.

[redacted] advised that in the event he is kicked out of the NKKKK he would take as many NKKKK members as possible with him and affiliate with another Klan organization although he definitely would not affiliate with the United Klans of America (UKA) as he has no personal liking for UKA Ohio State
Organizer [redacted]

[redacted] of [redacted] and [redacted] on [redacted]
[redacted] advised that the following individuals from Northern Ohio are definitely State officers of the NKKKK:

E. Dissention and Possible Reorganization

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that [redacted] had conferred with JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, during the National Klan Day Rally held over the Labor Day, 1966 weekend in Stone Mountain, Georgia, and on his return [redacted] made the following announcement:

A reorganization meeting for Ohio is being planned at which VENABLE will preside. No definite date or location has been decided. This meeting may be open to the general membership or might be limited to the Imperial Board members. During this meeting NKKKK boundaries within the State of Ohio are to be redefined and are expected to coincide with the area code boundaries as set up by the Ohio Bell Telephone Company. Consideration may also be given to changing the name of the Klan in Ohio in an attempt to consolidate the Klan in Ohio. In addition, VENABLE indicated that he would dissolve all offices currently held by NKKKK members in Ohio.

[] on [] informed that since his trip to Stone Mountain, Georgia, [] has maintained contact with VENABLE by letter and telephone. [] stated that during a telephone call to VENABLE during the latter part of September, 1966, VENABLE told him that he was not pleased with the way things are going in Ohio, that he was going to make one more effort to organize and if that was not successful, he was going to leave Ohio to the United Klans of America.

As of [] advised that VENABLE has still not made a trip to Ohio to re-organize nor are there any plans in this direction; consequently, the organization and leadership remains in a state of turmoil.

[] on [] informed that on Sunday, September 4, 1966, a meeting of the NKKKK was held at the headquarters of this organization at Tucker, Georgia. About ten Klanswomen and between 25 and 30 Klansmen were present, including JAMES R. VENABLE and State officers from Ohio. There was considerable discussion on the dissention which exists within the Klan in Ohio, and various Klanspeople made brief talks on what they felt was wrong with the Klan in Ohio. However, nothing of a conclusive nature was formulated.

II. KLAVERNS

A. Name and Location

[] on [] informed that to his knowledge there are only two functioning Klaverns within the Cleveland Division which are Klavern #6, centered in Cleveland, Ohio, and Klavern #7, centered at Akron, Ohio. He noted that these two Klaverns are in the Northeastern Ohio Regional Klan Section and there are no organized Klaverns within the Northwestern Ohio Regional Klan Section, although applications for NKKKK membership have, in the past, been taken from individuals who reside within the Northwestern Ohio Regional Klan Section.

[] further noted that there is no concrete evidence other than Klaverns #6 and #7 exist in the Cleveland Division. He did note that in the past, [] Ohio [] for the NKKKK, has made reference to another active

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

Klavern within 50 miles of Cleveland and it is felt that he was referring to a small group of Klansmen in the Lodi-Brunswick, Ohio area.

[redacted] of Lodi, Ohio, is extremely active in Klan affairs and it is quite possible that Klansmen in this area occasionally meet but are not sufficient in numerical strength for the formation of an active Klavern.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that he is only aware of two NKKKK Klaverns within the Northeastern Ohio Regional Klan Section and that they are Klavern #6 at Cleveland, Ohio, and Klavern #7 at Akron, Ohio.

B. Membership and Recruitment

Klavern #6 - Cleveland, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that there are 63 members carried on the rolls of Klavern #6, although only about 15 - 20 of these individuals are considered active members.

He noted that recruitment for the most part is by rallies held to attract individuals who may have an interest in the Klan movement.

Klavern #7 - Akron, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that Klavern #7 Akron, Ohio, has 30 members on its rolls and of these, only about 15 are considered active members. He noted that recruitment has been by rallies held to attract membership.

A. Meetings

Klavern #6 - Cleveland, Ohio

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that Klavern #6 normally holds its meetings on the first Thursday of each month at 8:00 PM and on the third Sunday of each month at 2:00 PM. Klavern #6 has no regular meeting place but has been renting available space under the name "SWL Radio Club."

[redacted] noted that most meetings have been held at the Manger Hotel, Cleveland, however, this practice will have to be discontinued as the [redacted] charges a fee of $15.00 for the rental of their meeting room and the Klavern cannot financially support this expense.

No action was taken on [] suggestions.

Klavern #7 - Akron, Ohio

[] on [] advised that Klavern #7 meetings were scheduled for every third Sunday in the month and are closed meetings held at the residence of [] in North Canton, Ohio. However, he pointed out that there have been no meetings of Klavern #7 since the Summer of 1966.

[] advised that a split in the NKKKK in the Akron, Ohio area appears to be imminent and there has been considerable friction within this group for several months. This friction came to surface last Spring during a NKKKK Board meeting in Cleveland, Ohio. At that time [] and [] who was appointed [] for the NKKKK in Ohio, were having a disagreement, and [] accused [] at this meeting of trying to get him thrown out of the organization. [] did not voice any opinion regarding [] at this meeting. However, he had previously talked to JAMES VENABLE, who attended the meeting, and expressed a desire to get [] out. As a result, [] NKKKK application was actually torn up at this meeting.

Nothing was heard from [] for a while following this meeting, and it appeared that he had discontinued his Klan activities. However, when [] began having NKKKK rallies in Medina County, Ohio, during the Summer of 1966, [] began attending these rallies. He even purchased a full page ad in the Akron Beacon Journal, a daily newspaper published in Akron, Ohio, advertising one of these rallies. In this ad he identified himself as [] of the NKKKK. [] still did not attend meetings of Akron NKKKK Klavern #7, however, these meetings were generally held at the residence of [] and as indicated above, [] and [] do not get along well.

When the National Klan Day Rally was held at Stone Mountain, Georgia, during Labor Day weekend, 1966, both [] and [] attended. When [] returned he stated that JAMES VENABLE had indicated at this meeting that he was dissolving all offices currently held by NKKKK members in Ohio, and that he planned to come to Ohio sometime in the future to reorganize.

B. Public Gatherings, Demonstrations

NKKKK Rally
August 6 and 7, 1966
Medina County, Ohio

B. APPROX.

[] advised on [] that a full page advertisement announcing an NKKKK rally scheduled for August 6, 1966, and August 7, 1966, in Medina County, Ohio, appeared in the August 4, 1966, edition of the Akron Beacon Journal, an Akron, Ohio daily newspaper. He said that this advertisement contained the "Klansmen's Creed," an application for membership in the NKKKK, a request for donations to be sent to NKKKK, Post Office Box 175, Oregonia, Ohio, an open letter announcing that JAMES R. VENABLE, NKKKK Imperial Wizard, would be there and inviting the public to attend the rally. The letter, he said, was signed [] NKKKK Association of America. This source advised that the ad was purchased by []

He said the cost of the ad was $809.00, but inasmuch as [] paid cash for it he got a 2 per cent discount. According to this source, [] appeared at the Akron Beacon Journal three different times before an agreement was reached regarding the ad. He said that [] was reluctant to have his name placed in the ad but that the newspaper would not agree to print it unless his name was placed in it.

[] advised on [] that an NKKKK rally was held on the property of [] near Lodi, Ohio, in Medina County that day. He said that Imperial Wizard VENABLE did not appear at the rally and that the [] NKKKK Kludd, was the principal speaker. He estimated the attendance at about 100 and said about 25 or 30 individuals wore Klan robes. He further advised that the proceedings were orderly and ended about 11:00 PM with the burning of the cross.

An article in the August 7, 1966 edition of the Akron Beacon Journal estimated attendance at the rally on August 6, 1966, at about 150 persons.

[redacted] Medina County Sheriff's Office, Medina, Ohio, advised on August 8, 1966, that his office had estimated attendance at the rally on August 6, 1966, at about 200 and the attendance on August 7, 1966, at about 30. He said a collection was taken at the rally on August 6, 1966, to pay for an ad which appeared in the Akron Beacon Journal on August 4, 1966. A cross was burned at the end of the rally the evening of August 6, 1966, he said, but no cross was burned on August 7, 1966. He further advised that the rally terminated at about 6:30 PM on August 7, 1966, and that there were no incidents, arrests or acts of violence either day of the rally.

[redacted] on [redacted] confirmed the above two-day NKKKK rally and noted that few applications for membership were taken on August 6, 1966, and none were received on August 7, 1966. He noted that from this viewpoint, the rally was considered a failure.

Counter-surveillance of Contemplated CORE Surveillance of the Cleveland Police Department

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that he learned that NKKKK Klansmen [redacted] and [redacted] on the evening of September 14, 1966, went to the Central Headquarters of the Cleveland Police Department, where they contacted a [redacted] Detective Bureau, Cleveland Police Department. [redacted] and [redacted] advised that they were representatives of the NKKKK and that they intended to impose a counter-surveillance on CORE representatives who intend to surveil members of the Cleveland Police Department. CORE intends to surveil the Cleveland Police Department to see if the police department is doing their job and to see that they commit no acts of brutality in the performance of their duties.

[redacted] advised [redacted] that they would act as witnesses on the side of the Cleveland Police Department and that they would appear in court if necessary.

IV. FINANCES

[] on [] informed that JAMES R. VENABLE, on September 12, 1966, turned over to Klavern #6 a check in the amount of $117.62. This represented a portion of the amount sent to VENABLE by [] and [] when they closed Klavern #6's bank account at the Cleveland Trust Bank and sent the entire proceeds of $185.12 to VENABLE. OK

The sum of $117.62 was turned over to Klavern #6 [] who felt the amount was from $5.00 to $1000 more than Klavern #6 should have received and when the actual amount due the Klavern is ascertained, the overpayment will be returned to VENABLE.

[] on [] informed that Klavern #6 at the present time has no bank account. In addition, he noted that collections at Klavern meetings have not met current expenses and, consequently, the Klavern is in a poor financial condition.

V. PUBLICATIONS AND PROPAGANDA

[] on [] and [] on [] informed that the NKKKK in the Northern Ohio area has no publications, although announcements of its rallies have appeared in the form of handbills and letters as well as press releases in various news medias.

In respect to the above, the details of a full page NKKKK advertisement which appeared in the August 4, 1966, edition of the Akron Beacon Journal, a daily newspaper published in Akron, Ohio, appears in the section of this report dealing with the NKKKK rally held August 6 and 7, 1966, in Medina County, Ohio.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that he recently learned that on or about September 8, 1966, [redacted] an official of Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio, was in contact with JAMES VENABLE and [redacted] both officials of the National organization of the NKKKK, at VENABLE's law office at Tucker, Georgia. These individuals discussed the possibility of opening an office of the NKKKK in Cleveland, Ohio. VENABLE and [redacted] suggested that instead of opening an office that a classified advertisement be placed in a local newspaper to advertise for office space in the name of the NKKKK. They noted that in this manner, that anyone renting space to the NKKKK would be fully aware of the intended purpose of the office and further, that as long as the advertisement is running, that it would also serve to tell people where they could contact the NKKKK. They felt in this manner that the advertisement would serve to attract people interested in the Klan movement.

[redacted] on his return to Cleveland, indicated that he is not actually interested in renting office space inasmuch as Klavern #6 cannot afford this expense. However, [redacted] placed an advertisement in the Classified Section of the Cleveland "Plain Dealer" which will first appear in the September 21, 1966 edition and will run for seven days. This classified advertisement was placed under the heading "Want Offices, Desk Room" and reads as follows:

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted]
[redacted] National Christian Conservative Society (NCCS), on August 13, 1966, advised he was organizing right wing

Source noted that the NCCS was [redacted] by [redacted] [redacted] who utilizes the title of [redacted] is also the [redacted] the NAAWP which was formerly known as the National Association for the Advancement of White People.
[redacted] originally conceived the idea of the NCCS during October, 1965, as a vehicle to circumvent the new Ohio Fair Housing Law which precludes discrimination against the Negro race in housing matters. The NCCS was not a success in its original intent and is now utilized by [redacted] to give him cover with his association with the NAAWP.

[redacted] Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland Police Department, Cleveland, Ohio, was advised of the above on August 13, 1966, and advised that adequate police coverage would be afforded this picket demonstration.

[redacted] later advised that the picket demonstration of The Book Mark took place at 5:20 PM and was over at 6:20 PM, August 13, 1966. This group was under sponsorship of the NCCS and 13 individuals picketed. Source advised that of the group he recognized four members of the NKKKK and an individual who was formerly a member of the NKKKK but who now claims to be a member of the UKA. Source pointed out that most of the individuals at this demonstration hold dual membership with the NAAWP. He noted that a sign which read "Communism is treason - close the Communist bookstore" was carried by the pickets.

No arrests or incidences took place.

Pickets sponsored by the Cleveland Committee to End the War in Vietnam (CCEWV) began marching near the Burke Airport, Cleveland, Ohio, at approximately 11:30 AM, on September 18, 1966, where Vice-President HUBERT H. HUMPHREY was attending a luncheon. Since a local ordinance forbids picketing on airport property, the pickets marched near the street, several hundred yards from the airport building. Approximately sixty-five persons participated in the picketing, many carrying signs urging that United States troops be withdrawn from Vietnam and the war be stopped.

Marching near the above group were approximately twenty to twenty-five counter-pickets from right wing groups some of whom carried signs reading, "Wallace for President - Win in Vietnam," and "No Integration Here."

[redacted] Bureau of Special Investigation, Cleveland, Ohio Police Department, advised on September 18, 1966, that the two groups of pickets were kept apart by mounted police and there were no incidents or disturbances with the exception of occasional heckling between the two groups. The Vice-President did not come in contact with the pickets inasmuch as the demonstrators had departed before the luncheon ended.

According to [] the counter-picketing was sponsored by the NAAWP with other right wing groups participating.

[] on [] informed that [] Ohio [] for the NKKKK and other Klansmen from Northern Ohio travelled to Chicago, Illinois, on August 19, 1966, where they met [] from Akron, Ohio. The purpose of the trip was not only to recruit members for the NKKKK but to be on hand for any demonstrations which might take place in connection with the tense racial situation in the Chicago - Cicero, Illinois area during this time.

[] advised that [] was arrested on August 21, 1966, by local police for making a speech in Marquette Park, Chicago, without a permit. [] appeared in court on August 22, 1966, in connection with his arrest and he was convicted and fined $200.00.

[] on [] informed that [] in the company of a group of Klansmen, proceeded to Marquette Park, Chicago, on August 21, 1966, where [] was to give a Klan speech. [] was wearing his Klan robes and he was immediately arrested by the Chicago Police Department for giving a speech without a permit.

The "Chicago Tribune," 3 Star Final Edition, a daily newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois, on August 23, 1966, contained an article captioned "Ku Klux Klann Official Fined $200 for Speech," which related that EVAN LEWIS, age 34, Akron, Ohio, self-identified Imperial Ambassador of the Ku Klux Klan of America was fined $200 after being found guilty of making a public speech without a permit.

It stated that LEWIS was arrested in Marquette Park, August 21, 1966. JOHN D. HARTNETT, Deputy Chief of Patrol of the Chicago Police Department, testified that LEWIS continued to make comments concerning the organizing of white people after being warned by police that he could not speak in the park without a permit.

D. Effect of UKA
Organizing on NKKKK

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that to the best of his knowledge, the UKA has not established a Klavern in Cleveland, Ohio, although he is aware that there is a UKA Klavern at Akron, Ohio. He advised that during June, 1966, several Klavern #6 members indicated a dissatisfaction with the Klavern and advised they would go over to the UKA. These Klansmen have not appeared at any recent Klavern #6 meetings although they could not join a UKA Klavern until one is actually started in the Cleveland area.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that he learned through his membership with Klavern #6 that many of the militant members have left the Klavern or are considering leaving the Klavern and have indicated an interest in joining the UKA.

[redacted] noted that there was no UKA Klavern in the Cleveland, Ohio area, although he is aware that [redacted] is attempting to organize a UKA Klavern in the Akron, Ohio area.

[redacted] on [redacted] advised that no members of Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio, have left the Klavern to go over to the recently established UKA Klavern in Akron. He did note that the UKA Klavern held a meeting at Akron, Ohio, on September 18, 1966, and [redacted] former NKKKK [redacted] who is now the UKA organizer, sent invitations to numerous members of Klavern #7 to attend this meeting. [redacted] of the NKKKK,

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that it has come to his attention that [redacted] had a falling out with [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] believed that [redacted] had somehow informed [redacted] employer that he [redacted] was a member of the KKK which caused [redacted] considerable embarrassment with his employer. During the evening of July 30, 1966, [redacted] and [redacted] were drinking at David's Bar, 4105 Clark Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, when this matter came to fore resulting in an altercation between the two. [redacted] eventually "whipped" [redacted] and [redacted] later left the bar. However, [redacted] owner of David's Bar, would not permit [redacted] to leave and held him at the bar until 5:00 AM July 31, 1966, when five men were admitted into the bar. RE: RALLY HELD BY THE NATIONAL
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA AT
BOAZ, ALABAMA, ON OCTOBER 14, 1966

A Birmingham confidential source advised on October 19, 1966, that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Association of America held a rally at Boaz, Alabama, on October 14, 1966, at 7:30 P.M. Birmingham source advised that this rally was attended by approximately 100 persons, of which there were sixteen Klansmen present.

The principle speaker at this rally was James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard, who belittled the local citizens for not doing their duty and told them they were to blame for the present situation in our country. Several people in the crowd, according to Birmingham source, appeared to resent this remark. Venable went on to criticize President Johnson and Martin Luther King by claiming they were from the same mold.

Birmingham source advised the rally was held at a ballfield on U. S. Highway 431 in Boaz, Alabama, and included several other speakers besides Venable whose names were not given. Birmingham source further advised that the City of Boaz, Alabama, had two uniformed policemen present at the rally at all times.

Birmingham source advised there were no incidents and the rally lasted approximately two and one-half hours.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

COULD THIS HAPPEN TO YOUR DAUGHTER?

"The Saddest Story Ever Told"

By Oliver Allstrom

When a White Girl Has a Black Baby

When a white girl marries a negro, her sun of life goes down.
And glaring spots of sin appear on her white wedding gown.
And white and black men stand aghast, while viewing this strange role;
And mutter, "they will wreck themselves, and damn each other's soul."

We know a carnivorous bug has crept into her brain
And gnawed away her self-respect, which left her half insane.
Now all her racial pride has flown beyond redemption's fold
And she begin's life's saddest tale that ever yet was told.

Three days and nights she felt black lips press smug against her own,
And on the fourth, her troubled soul, let out a frightful groan.
And so the weeks and months flew by, and then a baby came;
She looked at it with tear filled eyes, and hung her head with shame.

And then she dreamed of other days, sweet, girlhood days gone by,
And of the white friends left behind, and so we hear her cry;
"O, could I turn life's pendulum backwards a few short years
I would not bear this cross today, nor shed these bitter tears."

"My baby would be white as snow, and sleep upon my breast
Like a fledgling robin that slumbers in its nest.
While now, O God, my mongrel child just whimpers through the night
Till in my sleepless dreams I scream, not white, O God, not white!"

And so I stagger through my days far from God's love and grace,
Till now, I know, no black man lives, can take a white man's place.
My offsprings shall be mongrel bred, their hue-skin shall remain,
For even God with all His power, cannot remove the stain.

I sold my birthright for a mess, I mixed my white-born blood
With black blood, so I languish here like one bogged down in mud.
Though God may grant a pardon, I never can retrace
My footsteps down life's narrow road, back to the white man's race.

So now I groan, "It might have been," had racial pride been mine.
Today I'd hug a pure white child, and call him half divine,
I'd lift him up before the world, and praise his father's name,
While now, my baby's mongrel face, reminds me of my shame.

All other crimes may be forgiven when prayer its power fulfills;
The scheming crook may find new hope, and even the man that kills,
But all my prayers can never clear my baby's mongrel skin,
Nor make him white as driven snow, nor cleanse my soul of sin.

I was my father's future hope, my mother's joy and pride,
But I got lost on life's dark road, and there my spirit died.
I smeared my all-white heritage and left the white man's track,
Now my descendants for all time shall be forever black.

I try to hide from all the stars, the moon and setting sun;
For all mankind of my white race, condemn what I have done;
I tremble and my teardrops flow, I pray, but pray in vain;
For nevermore shall I be one with my white race again.

And so dark clouds above me roll, deep waters crash below,
I sink, and reap what I have sown, and drink my cup of woe.
My mother sleeps deep in her grave, my dad lies at her side,
For both were crushed when I became a negro's common bride.

Now, should I decide to leave him, where could I choose to go?
My misspent life will follow me like footprints in the snow.
Before me lie dark jungles where paramours seek a prey;
Behind me death keeps whispering, "I am the only way."

This black and white, prenuptial mess, this racial suicide;
Must be forbidden by the law, men must find racial pride!
Then, never again, forever, shall tales like mine unfold.
With all its shame and sadness, that ever yet was told.

II. KLAVERNS OR LOCAL CHAPTERS

The NKKKK currently has two units operating in the State of Georgia. One is located at Thomaston and the other at Barnesville, Georgia. However, both units meet together at Barnesville, Georgia. The total membership of the two units is approximately 25 members.

[redacted] on [redacted]

About June 1, 1966, several members of the Macon, Georgia, Klavern of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA) discussed joining with another Klan organization. Shortly thereafter two of the members contacted JAMES R. VENABLE of the NKKKK in Atlanta, Georgia, concerning VENABLE's sponsoring a Klavern of that organization at Macon. VENABLE authorized those former members at the Macon Klavern to organize a Klavern of the NKKKK and sent them applications, a Kloran, constitution and by-laws, and oath and obligations. However, none of VENABLE's property was used and no effort was made by that group to organize a unit of the NKKKK.

A characterization of UKA is included in the appendix of this report.

[] on []

On September 3, 1966, JAMES R. VENABLE talked with a former member of UKA and VENABLE stated he would like that man to organize Klaverns of the NKKKK in Middle Georgia. No action has been taken to organize such Klaverns.

[redacted] on [redacted]

At a meeting of the NKKKK at Barnesville, Georgia, on June 12, 1966, [redacted] said he wanted to go underground with the Klan group and that when they had a "job to do" the only ones that would know anything about it were those who actually did it and if the FBI tried to find out who had done it there would be no one to tell except those who participated.

[redacted] on [redacted]

On July 23, 1966, several members of the Barnesville Unit of the NKKKK met informally at the home of one of the members at Barnesville, Georgia. On May 6, 1966, [REDACTED] surrendered himself to the sheriff of Butts County, Georgia, though several members of the Barnesville Unit of the NKKKK waited for [REDACTED] to return to that area.

[REDACTED] on [REDACTED]

A National meeting of the NKKKK was held at Tucker, Georgia, on June 18, 1966, at 8:00 p.m. Five member Klan organizations were present. The meeting amounted to a general discussion of the new Civil Rights Act which was then before Congress and a discussion of the inactivity of the Klan due to members being scared by the FBI and the House Committee on Un-American Activities. JAMES R. VENABLE played a tape of a talk made by a Negro in Chicago, Illinois, at the same meeting at which VENABLE spoke about four weeks ago. The Negro said he had been in the hands of the Klan three times and the Klan had protected him from his own people. The Negro also said the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the demonstrations and marches are communist inspired.

AT 157-60

The meeting ended about 10:30 p.m. on June 18, 1966, and reconvened on June 19, 1966, at 8:45 a.m. JAMES R. VENABLE made a motion that the unpaid past-dues of all member Klans be suspended. The motion was passed. VENABLE stated that as soon as they get the funds to operate on he is going to start a newspaper that will cover Klan activities all over the United States. He said that newspaper will cost each Klansman $10 to $12 a year. VENABLE stated that the newspapers in the North give Klan organizations good publicity but newspapers in the South smear the Klan name. At the meeting, $40 in dues was collected.

[redacted] or [redacted]

On September 3, 1966, the NKKKK held its annual National Klan Day rally in a field adjacent to Stone Mountain at Stone Mountain, Georgia. The property is owned by JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK.

Approximately 300 people were in attendance at the rally and about 75 wore Klan robes. Most of the people were from Georgia, Ohio, Florida and South Carolina. Three crosses were burned simultaneously. Among the speakers was [redacted] who is [redacted] of the Women of the NKKKK. Another speaker was an unknown white male from San Bernardino, California. His speech was generally anti-Negro and anti-Jewish. A [redacted] from St. Petersburg, Florida, made a short speech in which he stated he had been a member of the Klan for many years. [redacted] of Atlanta, Georgia made a talk on religion and its place in the Klan. [redacted] from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, talked about the progress made by the Klan in Western Pennsylvania and Ohio, and made several anti-Jewish statements. The main speaker was Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, who made a long speech.

b6
b7C
b7D

He traced the history of the Klan from its formation shortly after the Civil War until the present time. He said the Klan was organized to foster white supremacy and has continued to play the same roll down through the years. He said the Klan is the only organization which is actively working on behalf of white supremacy. There were no incidents of violence at the rally.

AT 157-60

[] on []

The September 5, 1966, edition of the "Atlanta Journal and Constitution," a newspaper of general circulation published in Atlanta, Georgia, contained an article on page 15 reflecting that a rally sponsored by the NKKKK was held at Stone Mountain, Georgia, and the article carried a photograph of three burning crosses with three robed and hooded Klansmen facing the burning crosses.

Officers of the NKKKK held a meeting on September 4, 1966, at the Memorial Motel, Stone Mountain, Georgia. The meeting was presided over by JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard. The main topic of discussion was the possibility of holding a rally in Chicago, Illinois, which would be the beginning of an attempt to organize in the Chicago area. They decided a rally should be held in Chicago within the next six months but no date or site were selected for the meeting. JAMES R. VENABLE agreed that if the Chicago rally could be set up he would go to Chicago and be the main speaker and would hold a press conference in Chicago in order to get maximum publicity for the Klan.

APPENDIX

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UNITED KLANS)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, show that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name of United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute, and the United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The [] source and a [] source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, the Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The organization is [] by [] and is the dominant Klan group in the South with units in several southern states.

On [] the [] source advised that the organization formerly known as United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., would be known in the future as United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The [] source said the name was changed by a resolution adopted at the National Klonvocation held July 8, 1961, at Indian Springs, Georgia.

[] source advised that at a meeting at Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, a majority of the Klaverns of the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

By airtel captioned as above, dated December 9, 1966, the Cleveland Office advised Chicago that [redacted] advised SA [redacted] on December 9, 1966, that to the best of his knowledge the NKKKK never established a klavern in Chicago. On December 19, 1966 [redacted] United Klans of America, (UKA), NKKKK, Riverside, Illinois Klavern, who is presently under development by the Chicago Office as a potential klan informant, and who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] that he knows of no activity within the State of Illinois by the captioned group. [redacted] proceeded alone and arrived at NKKKK which gave [redacted] an opportunity to converse with him for

indicated things seem to be going well in Ohio although he wants

CH
Synopsis: NKKKK Ohio State Offices reportedly dissolved by NKKKK Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE and replaced by 12 authorized Kleagle positions. State Executive Board no longer believed in existence and Imperial Board members may now be Kleagles. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are self-claimed Northern Ohio leaders of the NKKKK although [REDACTED] is emerging as the [REDACTED] while [REDACTED] appears to have fallen in disfavor with VENABLE and speaks of affiliating with another national Klan organization. Efforts to change name of NKKKK to the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, discontinued. Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio, no longer a functioning Klavern. Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio, has had only one meeting in past three months and no other activity.

b6

- P -

DETAILS:

A characterization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) is contained in the Appendix of this report.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

A. Headquarters*

[] on [] again advised that the NKKKK has no headquarters within the confines of the Cleveland Division and to the best of his knowledge, the NKKKK has no headquarters within Ohio.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

B. Charter Information

[] on [] again advised that the NKKKK has no charter with the State of Ohio, although for a short period the NKKKK did have a charter which was granted by the State of Ohio and then revoked.

[] on [] advised that [] officially presented to [] Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio, an NKKKK Charter for Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio.

The charter was dated January 1, 1967, and signed by JAMES R. VENABLE as the Imperial Wizard and [] as the [] although [] does not actually hold the position of []. In this respect, [] noted that a number of blank NKKKK Charters containing only the signature of JAMES R. VENABLE were given to him by VENABLE with the instructions that a charter be given to a Klavern when [] is satisfied that the Klavern is operating properly under the bylaws of the NKKKK. VENABLE further instructed that [] in executing the charters fill in his own name in the blank space provided for the signature of the Imperial Kligrapp.

b6
b7C
b7D

C. Objectives

[] advised on [] that through his association with the Klan movement, it is clear that the objectives of the NKKKK are to fight integration, bring about the repeal of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as well as to present the views of the white race in a favorable light by insuring that the various news media present not only Negroes' views but also that of the white race in any particular issue.

[] noted that these objectives in the Northern Ohio area are expected to be brought about by peaceful means by the vast majority of Klansmen, although a very small minority within the movement have eluded to or even suggested forms of violence and intimidation against the Negro race as a solution to the problem.

D. National and State Officers

[] on [] advised that there are no known NKKKK officers on the national level within the State of Ohio, although under the old organizational structure the Imperial Board reportedly consisted of 12 members for the entire State of Ohio, of whom the following from Northern Ohio are known:

Akron, Ohio area

Akron, Ohio area

Cleveland, Ohio area

[] on [] confirmed the above and noted that there has been no known activity on the part of the Imperial Board under that name, although these individuals are still active in the NKKKK matters.

[] on [] informed that [] and [] both attended the NKKKK National Klan Day Rally, Stone Mountain, Georgia, over the Labor Day, 1966, weekend, and when [] returned he put out the word that VENABLE was dissolving all Ohio State offices as he was dissatisfied with the NKKKK in Ohio and would come to Ohio to re-organize the NKKKK.

[] on [] informed that [] now refers to himself as the Imperial Ambassador and King Kleagle for Ohio and has done so since he returned from the NKKKK National Klan Day Rally over the Labor Day, 1966, weekend. [] has also put out the word that there are no longer any NKKKK State offices in Ohio. [] explained that he had conferred with Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, who told them that Ohio had no State officers but that there were 12 NKKKK Kleagle positions authorized for Ohio, and that some of these Kleagles would eventually be promoted to State offices based on their performance in the Klan movement.

b6
b7C
b7D

[] pointed out that the 12 member Imperial Board and the 12 authorized Kleagles, both referred to above, could be synonymous and accordingly what was formerly referred to as members of the Imperial Board could now be Kleagles. In addition, [] noted that [] former Kladd of Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio, is now a temporary "free-lance" Kleagle.

[] on [] informed that [] is definitely the individual who gives orders regarding Akron NKKKK activities and for all intents and purposes is the "top man" of the NKKKK at least in Northern Ohio. In this connection, [] on [] noted that [] recently stated that he is now the King Kleagle and all other Ohio NKKKK officers must answer to him.

[] on [] informed that since the 1966 NKKKK National Klan Day Rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, [] has repeatedly claimed that he is an Imperial Ambassador as well as Grand Kleagle.

[] on [] informed that [] an NKKKK member from Lodi, Ohio, on October 24, 1966, advised that he had been appointed a Kleagle.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[] on [] informed that [] recently asked [] to be the Kleagle in the Cleveland area. [] claims he told [] that he would accept this position, however, he has never been advised officially or otherwise that he actually has the position unless [] offer could be construed as a tacit understanding that the position is his.

[] on [] informed that [] and [] are the leaders of the NKKKK in Northern Ohio, although he believes that [] has fallen in disfavor with Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE and he, [] may eventually leave the NKKKK to affiliate with another national Klan organization.

In this connection, [] on [] informed that [] and [] made a trip to NKKKK National Headquarters, Tucker, Georgia, over the November 5-6, 1966, weekend to discuss the status of the NKKKK in Ohio with VENABLE, but they were unable to see him.

[] on [] informed that [] on December 20, 1966, related that he and his wife again went to Tucker, Georgia, over the Thanksgiving, 1966, weekend to see VENABLE regarding the status of the NKKKK in Ohio, and they were unable to see him. [] felt that VENABLE was dodging him and then mentioned he might start another Klan organization or affiliate with another Klan organization.

[] on [] informed that he recently learned that [] and [] planned to go to Tucker, Georgia, over the New Years, 1966-1967, weekend to confer with VENABLE over the status of the NKKKK in Ohio, however, at the last minute [] backed out as he felt VENABLE would not see them and the trip would, therefore, be useless. SPATE proceeded alone to Tucker, Georgia, and only spoke to VENABLE for five minutes at a New Years Eve social function, after which he was unable to again meet with VENABLE, although he made numerous attempts in this direction.

[] on [] advised that [] on January 16, 1967, acknowledged that while he, [] was in the Atlanta area during the Thanksgiving, 1966, weekend, he had made an inquiry concerning the availability of a charter for another national Klan organization. [] admitted that he had some interest in possibly affiliating with another national Klan organization but for the present has taken no positive steps.

State Executive Board CS NKKKK

[] on [] informed that based on information from [] the State Executive Board is no longer in existence. In this respect, he noted that of the three last known members of the State Executive Board, [] and [] the latter, [] has advised he has dropped out of all Klan activities.

[] on [] informed that [] is no longer an [] and he, therefore, is not a member of the State Executive Board. In addition, [] advised there was no activity on the part of the State Executive Board, and as [] was never notified that he would be [] replacement on the State Executive Board because of "succession rights", the possibility is present that the State Executive Board is no longer in existence.

made at the NKKKK National Klan Day Rally, Labor Day, 1966, weekend, at Stone Mountain, Georgia.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that on or about November 11, 1966, [redacted] advised that $1.00 would be collected from each Klansman in Ohio to cover the cost of officially transferring their membership from the NKKKK to the IEKKKK. This would be a change in name only, inasmuch as JAMES R. VENABLE will still be in charge of the organization.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed he has received an unconfirmed rumor that the NKKKK has changed its name to the IEKKKK, however [redacted] stated he has received no official word to this effect.

[redacted] who has been familiar with certain phases of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., for many years, stated that in his opinion the alleged change in the name of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., is a fund-raising scheme and does not represent any real change in the organization. He pointed out that JAMES R. VENABLE, Atlanta attorney, has headed the organization from its inception and that VENABLE will be the Imperial Wizard of the alleged new organization.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] on November 27, 1966, informed that plans to change the name of the NKKKK to the IEKKKK has been canceled and the name of the NKKKK will remain the same.

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that he learned that [redacted] telephonically contacted Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE at Tucker, Georgia, on December 20, 1966, to finally resolve the change of name of the NKKKK to the IEKKKK. Imperial Wizard VENABLE advised [redacted]

[redacted] VENABLE clarified that the idea of [redacted] to form all present Klan organizations under the name IEKKKK was originally felt to be good for the Klan movement, however, it was decided that [redacted] is in it for the money and the Klan should forget about it.

[redacted] noted that [redacted] related that [redacted] of St. Petersburg, Florida, is an old-time Klansman who conceived the idea of merging all present Klan organizations under the name of the IEKKKK.

[] also advised that he was returning the $1.00 transfer fee to all Klansmen who have already paid in view of VENABLE's decision.

II. KLAVERNS

A. Name and Location

12/2/67 [] on [] informed that to the best of his knowledge, there are only two Klaverns in Northern Ohio, which are Klavern #6, centered in Cleveland, Ohio, and Klavern #7, centered in Akron, Ohio. However, he recalled that on January 19, 1967, he informed that [] officially issued an WKKKK Charter to Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio, at which time he, [] advised that this is the only charter he has given out, and by innuendo indicated that not even Klavern #7, Akron, Ohio, has such a charter.

[] on [] also noted that [] has spoken very little of Klavern #7 activities in the recent past and has been pre-occupied with the state organizational structure.

[] on [] informed that there has been no activity of any type on the part of Klavern #7, Akron, since the Summer of 1966, and apparently Klavern #7 has been disbanded.

[] continued that when Klavern #7, Akron, was operational they had a membership of approximately 30, of whom 15 were considered active members. [] who was the [] of Klavern #7, recently advised that he has completely dropped out of all Klan activities. Since Klavern #7 disbanded [] the only other officer of Klavern #7, is now a temporary [] However, [] as instructed all former active members of Klavern #7 to recruit ten new members each. [] hopes that each new member will recruit ten new members each, who in turn will recruit ten members each, and the Klan will progressively grow under his leadership. To date [] recruitment program has had very poor results.

[] on [] informed that [] on October 5, 1966, expounded on the idea of each Klansman recruiting ten new members, who in turn would recruit ten new members, who in turn would recruit ten new members, etc., thereby the Klan would grow in numerical strength.

B. Membership and Recruitment

Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio

[] on [] informed that there are 63 members carried on the rolls of Klavern #6, Cleveland, although only about 15-20 have engaged in any Klan activity. He advised that recruitment for the most part is by rallies held to attract individuals who may have an interest in the Klan movement.

C. Officers

Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio

[] on [] informed that Klavern #6 has only two officers who are: [] and []

III. ACTIVITIES

A. Meetings

Klavern #6, Cleveland, Ohio

[] on [] informed that Klavern #6 held a meeting on January 15, 1967, at the residence of [] in Cleveland. [] including [] attended the meeting. b2 b6 b7C b7D

The meeting consisted mostly of discussing dues payments. It was decided that anyone who paid their full dues last year would be paid up to January 1, 1968. Those who have not paid to date must pay their dues for the year 1967 or they will be dropped from Klan membership rolls.

[] on [] informed that the Klavern #6 meeting of January 15, 1967, has been the only Klavern #6 meeting held since October 16, 1966, and the Klavern has participated in no other Klan activity nor have they jointly participated in any projects with any other right-wing organizations.

IV. FINANCES

[] on [] informed that Klavern #6 has about $100 in cash, which is kept by the Klavern's Klabee [] these funds are not maintained in a [] bank, and it is presumed that [] has the funds in his home or on his person.

[] on [] informed that [] recently stated that Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE and the NKKKK organization are in great financial need. VENABLE reportedly told [] that money must be obtained for the printing of literature, mailing, pay for Kleagles, legal expenses, etc. Although [] has said he is working on soliciting funds from various anonymous donors in the area, he has also indicated he has been unsuccessful to date.

[] on [] informed that [] on or about November 11, 1966, mentioned that he would like to have $10.00 from each Klansman every month to send to NKKKK National Headquarters, Tucker, Georgia.

V. PUBLICATIONS AND PROPAGANDA

[] on [] and [] on [] informed that the NKKKK in Northern Ohio has no publications nor have they put out any propaganda.

VI. MISCELLANEOUS

A. Klan Secrecy

[] on [] informed that he recently learned that the National Headquarters of the NKKKK has assigned a secret code number to each of the members of Klavern #6, Cleveland, and presumably has done the same for all NKKKK members.

[] on [] informed that efforts are being made to make the NKKKK in Ohio more secret. [] and [] have both stated that they were going to attempt to organize smaller Klaverns limiting the membership in each Klavern to about ten or twelve members. The only person to know the identities of the Klansmen will be the leader of the individual Klavern, and they will be required to memorize the members names in order to avoid the use of membership lists.

B. Klan Policy Toward Violence

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted]
on or about [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] also advised that he intended to cooperate with law enforcement but would not permit any law enforcement officer to trespass on their property during a rally. He advised that if the law insists on trespassing, they "will tip over a few police cars and exchange some lead." He indicated, "the Niggers are getting away with it and why shouldn't the Klan?"

C. Future Klan Rallies

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] recently advised that if the NKKKK is to be at all effective in the Northern Ohio area, an NKKKK sponsored rally should be held in Summit County (Akron, Ohio, area) in the Spring of 1967, possibly at the Rubber Bowl in Akron.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] advised that he would also like to travel to other neighboring states during the Summer of 1967, to hold one night rallies. He stated he would like to send an advance-man to obtain the rally site at each town about a week in advance of the rally. After the site is obtained, local newspapers would be notified in the hopes of creating publicity and local interest in the rally. According to [redacted] the rally would consist of a Klan speech, a cross burning, signing up of new members, and taking up a collection, after which the key members of the recruiting Klan team would move on to the next rally site.

[redacted] noted that nothing definite has been formulated concerning future NKKKK rallies, and [redacted] remarks are more in the nature of what he would like to see happen and not what he actually plans to happen.

D. Plans to Organize in Chicago, Illinois

[redacted] on [redacted] informed that [redacted] recently advised that he intended to return to the Chicago, Illinois, area in order to organize there on behalf of the NKKKK.

He indicated that he planned to take other Klansmen from the Akron, Ohio, area, but he did not identify them.

Re Atlanta airtel to the Bureau dated 1/25/67.

On [redacted] a member of the Grand Council of the Association of South Carolina Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (ASCK, KKKK), advised the ASCK is not considered a member organization of the NKKK and as a result is not under the direction and control of the NKKK. This informant further stated all ASCK policy is set by the Grand Council, the self-governing body within South Carolina, of the ASCK, KKKK and there is no national affiliation with any other Klan group. He stated a few individuals of the ASCK attended meetings of the NKKK at Tucker, Georgia, at various times during the year on an informal basis.

There is no indication in the Columbia files the ASCK has ever been officially under the direction or control of the NKKK.

In view of the above information an insert of the activities of the ASCK for the annual report of the NKKK of the Atlanta Division is not being submitted to Atlanta, UACB.

II. ACTIVITIES OF NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

A National meeting of the NKKKK was held at Tucker, Georgia, June 18, 1966. The meeting amounted to a general discussion of the new Civil Rights Act which was then pending before Congress and a discussion of the inactivity of the Klan due to members being scared by the FBI and the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The meeting ended about 10:30 p.m. on June 18, 1966, and reconvened on the morning of June 19, 1966. During that session of the meeting, VENABLE made a motion that the unpaid past-dues of all member Klans be suspended. The motion was passed. At the meeting, $40.00 in dues was collected.

On September 3, 1966, the NKKKK held its annual National Klan Day rally at Stone Mountain, Georgia, on property owned by JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard. Approximately 300 people were in attendance and about 75 wore Klan robes. JAMES R. VENABLE was the principal speaker and he traced the history of the Klan from its formation shortly after the Civil War until the present time. He said the Klan is the only organization which is actively working on behalf of white supremacy.

On April 30, 1966, a rally sponsored by the NKKKK was held on the property owned by JAMES R. VENABLE at Stone Mountain, Georgia. Approximately 75 people attended.

On December 20, 1966, JAMES R. VENABLE, Imperial Wizard, stated that the NKKKK will not change its name or merge into any organization known as the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. [REDACTED]

III. Summary of Activities

On [] advised that [] had scheduled a Klan rally to be held on his farm at Oregonia, Ohio, over the July 4, 1966, weekend. The main purpose of the rally would be for [] to receive publicity and receive financial contributions from attending individuals.
